

Matthew B. Berg

Senior Director of Information Technology

617.646.8282

Matthew.Berg@WolfGreenfield.com

Matt Berg joined the firm in 2001 as Director of Information Technology. He has a broad background in driving and supporting emerging technologies earned over the past 20 years while fulfilling such roles as webmaster, software developer, systems integrator, technical writer, and program manager.

At Wolf Greenfield, Matt is responsible for strategic technology planning, infrastructure design and support, hardware and software acquisition, application and desktop support, systems training and administration, telecommunication systems, and disaster recovery. Matt also oversees the development of in-house and client-facing applications.

Education

United States Naval Academy, BS

Kansas State University,
MA

Activities

- International Legal Technology Association